A DAY WITHOUT COFFEE
BY SEAN TAYLOR (9/26/12)

INT. KITCHEN TABLE - MORNING
(FRANK, BETTY)

BETTY IS IN THE KITCHEN AND FRANK ARRIVES CHEERY.

FRANK

Good morning, Betty.

BETTY

G'morning, dear. Grab some toast and I'll meet you at the table.

FRANK GRABS A MUG AND MOVES TOWARD THE COFFEE MAKER AND NOTICES IT IS EMPTY.

FRANK

Coffee maker broken, hun?

BETTY

There was no coffee to make so I didn't make any this morning.

FRANK (concerned)

Oh.

BETTY

I'm sure we'll be fine one day without coffee.

FRANK (reassured)

Yeah, you're right. So how did the weather sleep last night?

BETTY

I'm sorry?

FRANK (realizes his mistake)

Oops, guess I'm a little scatter weathered. What's the brain looking like outside?

BETTY (concerned, trying to placate)

Well the weatherman said it's going to be wet, but it looks beautiful outside.

FRANK
You're not the only one that looks beautiful, you're also beautiful.

BETTY
Aww, thanks, honey. That's sweet.

FRANK PICKS UP THE NEWSPAPER READS FOR A SECOND THEN PUTS IT DOWN.

FRANK
Say, isn't it about time Barack and Mitt get down here? They'll be late for school.

BETTY
(decodes what he's saying)
I thought I'd let Billy and Amanda sleep in today on account of it-

FRANK
Honey, don't let those kids run all over you.

FRANK STANDS UP AND GOES TO THE CLOSEST DOOR, OPENS IT AND YELLS.

FRANK (CONT'D)

Kids! Get down here.

BETTY

Frank, honey, it's Saturday. And also that's the bathroom.

FRANK
(realizes he's not right)

Man. I'm really not yourself today.

BETTY

You can say that again.

FRANK

Man. You're really not myself today.

BETTY

Maybe not. Hey, maybe you should take the day off of work and stay home with me and the kids. After all, you do work with heavy machinery and you really don't seem like you're in any condition-

FRANK NODS OFF ON TO HIS TOAST AND WAKES UP WHEN HIS HEAD HITS THE PLATE.

FRANK

Whoa, look at the work, I have got to get to time.

FRANK GETS UP GRABS A LAMP.

BETTY

Don't forget your lunch.

FRANK

One step ahead of you, Romney. Love you.

FRANK KISSES THE WALL AND JUMPS OUT THE WINDOW.

BLACKOUT.
