EXT. TOWN HALL - MORNING

(KURT, RITA, CHARLES, DR. WILLIAM KENT)

KURT IS DRESSED IN A TOP HAT AND OLD FASHIONED OUTFIT.

KURT

(rings handheld bell)

7 'o clock and all is well in Concord!

Today is November 4th, nineteen hundred and six. In local news,
Mayorial candidate Eleazor Webster defeated his opponent Winfield Thayer by a margin of 40 votes. In a statement, the new Mayor thanked the white male landowners that made his victory possible. Now for the weather, Rita, how's it looking out here?

RITA

Well, Kurt, (looks upward) it looks cloudy. Expect (counting with finger)
two-three-four-five five puffy clouds and one grey one. Looking at the extended forecast, my Uncle Carl's knee is starting to hurt so expect rain in the next couple of days.

RITA (CONT'D)

This could mean a great harvest which would contradict Poor Richard's Almanac's prediction for an unprecedented 65th straight day. Kurt, back to you.

KURT

Rain? And I left my house without my umbrella.

RITA

You will have to yell at your wife later.

KURT

Indeed.

RITA

I would never have led you astray, Kurt.

KURT

Thanks, Rita. And now, Charles is here with sports.

CHARLES

Yes, Kurt. One quick correction from yesterday, it was the Chicago White Sox and NOT the Chicago Cubs that won the World Series two weeks ago. Whew. That answers that question but there are so many others.

CHARLES (CONT'D)

The outcome of the heavyweight fight back on October 2nd and the Kentucky Derby back in May remain a mystery. In local sports, I was thinking of going skiing this winter. If anyone wants to join me, I'd love the company. Kurt, that offer extends to you.

KURT

No, thank you, Charles. And before we leave you, we are being joined by Dr. William Kent with some advice for healthy living.

DR. WILLIAM KENT

Eat a lot of eggs and bacon. That's all my father did every day and he lived to be 60 years old. Bacon and eggs when combined with a exercise regiment of beating your wife and children will help you live way longer than you should. You heard it here first. Now back to you, Kurt.

KURT

And that's what's up in Norwich. We'll be back every hour, on the hour with most of the same information. I'm Kurt, for Crying out loud!

BLACKOUT.
